This weekend, we enter into the commitment phase of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Our target goal for this year is to raise $18,596.40. In the past, we as a parish have always met our goal and surpassed it. As always, 100% of the amount the parish raises over and above the goal will return to us to be used for whatever parish need might be the greatest. As for the needs of the parish, we all well know that the list is never ending. However, at this time, I am again amazed at how much the grace of God is at work.

No sooner than I had begun to talk about the stained glass windows in church as our next major project, a donor came forward and blessed us with a gift of $25K which will allow us to have at least four (4) of our stained glass windows repaired and restored. As many may recall, the repairs and restoration of the windows has been estimated at about $6K/per window. Of course, the gift is generous but the work is far from over. Remember that there are sixteen (16) stained glass windows apart from the rose window, the two small round windows, and the three windows above the crucifix. Still, our donor has generously paved the way for us to begin this project sooner rather than later. For this we are truly blessed and we must be aware of how much God's grace is at work. By God's grace, we will be able to accomplish this project as soon as possible so that we can scratch one more need off of our list.

Having announced that good news, I recall that many parishioners have told me that they would love to be able to do something similar but they just do not have the resources. These same parishioners have promised me time and again that if they win the lottery, they would gladly give a good portion of their winnings to the parish. But, our response to God's goodness to us does not have to be that grandiose. In other words, we should not get ourselves bogged down in our inability to match such a gift of $25K dollar for dollar. Rather, we should simply allow our gratitude for God's blessings to determine how much we individually might be able to do for the benefit of our faith community.

As I have said before, the majority of us do not have $6K at our easy access. And, yes, it would be nice if every family registered here at SMM might have the resources to give $25K each. As we very well know, that is simply not the reality. However, again, it is not a matter of each of us giving the exact same dollar amount. It is instead a matter of each of us making equal sacrifices that reflect how equally grateful we are to God for the goodness He has given to us in our lives. When that becomes our starting point, we allow that gratitude to be reflected in whatever we deem is in our ability to give—from our time, talent, as well as treasure.

But, again, let the giving of our time, talent, and treasure be a direct reflection of our deep gratitude for what God has done for us. No matter what situation in which we find ourselves, the most important truth to remember is that we are here to advance the Mission of Jesus—the mission that has been entrusted to the Church. Forming ourselves and one another into more grateful disciples will be the essential step we will need in addressing all of the needs of the parish community.

As we consider the Annual Catholic Appeal among the other forms of fund raising in which we are engaged—the Easter Raffle, St. Pat's/St. Joseph Party, Summer Collection, and others—I simply ask that we do what we are able to do. But, let us also consider the fact that ours is not merely the task of “paying the bills” or “being productive” especially in terms of how many projects we are able to accomplish. Ours is a matter of living out our discipleship in such a way that each of us is very intentional about the manner and the extent to which we respond to our call to promote and advance the Mission of Jesus in the Church.

Fr. Tirso Villaverde, Jr.

“Finding Our Wholeness”

April 5-7, 2019

Retreat Master Fr. Jeff Putthoff, SJ
An Ignatian, Silent Retreat for Women

Our unique holiness is truly found in our wholeness in Jesus. We will use Ignatian contemplation in this weekend retreat, making use of the senses and imagination, to enter more fully into our wholeness and walk more closely with Jesus.

Meet Fr. Jeff Putthoff, SJ

Fr. Jeff Putthoff, SJ is a Jesuit priest. He is deeply interested in creating communities of healing, empowering young people, brain health, and finding God in all things. He has worked as a high school teacher, associate pastor, executive director, and high school president, using his unique experience in organizational dynamics, leadership, brain health, and Ignatian spirituality, applying it to youth education and organizational life. He is a retreat leader and a director of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola deeply desiring to help others connect to God. He is a gifted national speaker on trauma-informed care, organizational dynamics, youth formation, Ignatian spirituality, and leadership.

FOCUS ON THE WORD

CYCLES OF FAITH

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday, Jesus continues his challenging Sermon on the Mount. "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you? Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back." Words like these are challenging! Many of us have grown up in a culture of independence and retaliation against those who harm us. Today's Gospel reminds us that the way of the world is not necessarily the way of the disciple.

In many spiritual texts, saints describe the first stage of the spiritual life as mercenary love of God. That is, we love Him because he "pays" us with graces and good things. Consider for a moment, why do you do the good that you do? Take volunteering, for example. How often do we talk about the good feelings service evokes and how you "get so much more than you give." This is still based on an attitude of return on our investment. Would we volunteer if we knew it was good to do, but we didn't "feel" good afterward? What if the people we helped seemed ungrateful, or if someone at the food pantry stole $20 out of our purse? It can be difficult to love people when we think we might not get anything back. "For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you?"

As Christians, we are called to imitate God. We follow a God who loves not only His closest friends, but who loves betrayers, deniers, and crucifiers. The Christian walk is one of perseverance and sacrifice. What does your love look like?
