Next weekend, the members of the Grouping Feedback and Discernment Team (GFDT) and I will spend some time in prayer as we gather for a day long retreat on Saturday, June 22nd. I ask that everyone pray for us and continue to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we discern in what direction the Spirit might be directing our faith communities.

Just to review, the members of the GFDT from SMM are Art Blumberg and Bernita Ferdinand (4:00 p.m. Mass); Reid Mackin (8:30 a.m. Mass); Terry Luciano (10:30 a.m. Mass); and Deacon Michael Neba. Each of them are very visible people in those respective Mass times. As a result, everyone in the parish will have someone with whom you can share thoughts, ideas, concerns, or questions. They can bring all of those to the GFDT meetings. That way, we will be fully informed as we discern the direction the Spirit might be guiding our communities.

Discerning the Spirit's movements in our lives is always difficult. God usually does not make things known to us in clear and direct ways. Perhaps that is because God respects the free will with which He created us. In other words, God usually does not make things known directly in black and white ways because it gives us the opportunity to unite and conform our minds and wills to His where we ultimately will see the wisdom that must guide our actions. For this reason, discerning the will of God always requires a strong connection and bond with God.

This, obviously comes from a life of prayer, reflection, and an active engagement with the faith. Naturally, the more we spend time with a person the more we begin to understand that person's character. The more that happens, the more we are able to anticipate what the person might like or dislike or the way he or she might respond to a given situation. The same becomes true with our relationship with God and in discerning the mind of God. If we do not spend time with God, we will never get to know Him. If we do not take the opportunities to reflect and engage in our faith, it will become difficult for us to see more clearly the path that God is showing to us. For this reason, the group will spend the time on retreat next Saturday as a reminder that their task requires much more than just making a random decision. It requires a reliance on the guidance of God's Spirit.

I ask the same of all parishioners as we continue the journey of Renew My Church. Each and every one of us needs to be open to the wisdom and guidance of God. God's wisdom and the direction He gives are not always what we might want them to be. Yet, the more we reject or even try to "derail" the will of God, we will only find that life will become more difficult. We see the truth to this in virtually every person whom God has called. Jonah tried to run away from God and ended up in the belly of a big fish before he finally said 'yes' to what God asked of him. St. Paul is perhaps the best example since he went so far as to take steps to eliminate the community that professed faith in Jesus. In virtually every instance where God has called someone, it was only after he or she moved passed the attitude of "protecting my own turf" that he or she gradually found peace in the direction in which God was taking him or her. It was at that point when God's Mission truly became the driving force in that person's life.

I ask us to pray that the same will be true for all of us in our four communities of St. Henry, St. Timothy, Blessed Andrew Stepanic, and us.

Fr. Tirso Villaverde, Jr.

THE PASSAGE OF TIME

*"Make new friends, but keep the old...
The new are silver, the old are gold!"*

This year, St. Margaret Mary Parish will be welcoming back the graduates from the Class of 1969. We are so excited to be reconnecting with classmates from our years here at St. Margaret Mary School.

Memories of shared moments in childhood create a bond and become sweeter as time goes by. We will celebrate at the 4:00 pm Saturday Mass on June 29th, tour the parish grounds (some have never seen the Activity Center) and then on to our party.

Please keep our class and all graduates from SMM in your prayers!

CYCLES OF FAITH

The Most Holy Trinity

If God is one, how can He be three? The most intelligent theologians have racked their brains over the problem, and the most prayerful ones have surrendered to the mystery. How it can be, we can't explain. But what it means, we can join! Our God is an ever-unfolding relationship. Theologians speak of the immanent and economic Trinity. The Trinity is immanent in the sense that the Persons are close and entirely sufficient within Godself. In other words, God doesn't require us for God to exist. The word economic is rooted in the Greek word for management of a household or family. The Trinity is economic in the sense that God has invited us to be part of Him. He's growing the family! We see the dynamic here in today's Gospel.

Jesus says the Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you" and that "everything that the Father has is mine." There is relationship here. Jesus speaks (and is) the word of the Father. The Holy Spirit speaks what He hears from the Son. The Father gives everything to the Son, and the Spirit speaks that inheritance over us. God invites us into the Trinitarian family!

The doctrine of the Trinity isn't something to brush off as overwhelming. After all, "the Spirit of truth... will guide you to all truth." This occurs most perfectly in the Church, who protects all that has been revealed by God in Scripture and gradually unpacked in tradition. We can trust the declarations of Her theologians and learn from the lives of Her saints. The Trinity may be a mystery, but, by the grace of God, we can have real truth about who God is and how we can love like Him.
