As we have entered into the journey of Renew My Church, I am certain that there is one thought that is going through the minds of virtually everyone in the parish. Namely, why talk of renewal when this whole thing is simply a process of restructuring and reconfiguring of parishes? So, in the minds of many people, it seems confusing to speak of Renew My Church in terms of a spiritual renewal when on the surface it looks like a matter of “downsizing.”

While the focus must be on a spiritual renewal, the structural issues cannot be ignored. As we will hear in the upcoming Renew My Church 101 session that is scheduled for Sunday, July 14th, we are living in a different culture and society today. For one, parishes are no longer the social centers. Today’s young adults have so many other options and venues in which to socialize and meet people. There are the coffee shops, the bars, and the growing number of restaurants, just to name a few. People no longer feel the need to flock to the local Catholic parish to fill their need for socialization.

There are many other factors involved in the shift of culture. We live in a time where religion is questioned on all levels. Many young adults prefer to be “spiritual” rather than “religious.” We also live in a society where people no longer have “time” to give to God. You cannot imagine the number of times I have heard people—young and old—tell me that they do not come to Mass on Sundays because they are “too busy” with other things—sports activities, social events, and sometimes even work. For this reason, we are living in a time and a society that no longer sees God, faith, or religion as relevant in their lives or even having any sort of positive impact on them. People will still devote time and effort to what they think is important in their lives. Unfortunately, though, things like God, faith, and religion are no longer ranking high on peoples’ list of priorities. Therefore, there is simply a growing number of people who just do not practice the faith anymore.

Again, though, what does this have to do with the need for Renew My Church? It is the very reason why so many parishes throughout the Archdiocese are suffering from the lack of people making those parishes their spiritual homes. While it is true that it should not be a matter of quantity but quality, in too many cases parishes are suffering from lack of resources including the personnel needed not only to maintain the parish property but, most importantly, to carry on the mission of the parish to pray well and to teach the faith. The material resources of the too many parishes (ours included) end up being dedicated to covering expenses such as salaries and benefits, utility costs, building and ground maintenance, and other similar expenses. When a parish does not have enough resources to strengthen the ways it prays well and teaches the faith, the life of a parish begins to weaken, dwindle, and maybe even die. So, in too many instances now, it has become a matter of spreading out resources too thinly that, instead of being instruments of evangelization, parishes have simply been running on the proverbial “life support.”

In order, then, for a genuine spiritual renewal to take place it does become necessary to address some of the structural issues at the same time. Will it be a painful process? Yes, it will be. Will it require some level of mourning and grieving? Yes, it will. Will we all need to learn how to be a parish community in a whole new way? Yes, that will be very much needed of us. Will it mean the end of our Catholic faith? To that, the answer is an emphatic “NO. This will NOT mean that we will stop being Catholic or have a place to call our spiritual home.” The call to renewal moves us to realize more and more that we are all in this together and it will only be together that we can come to a real sense of what we all need to do in order to proclaim the Gospel more effectively, with more enthusiasm, with a greater commitment, and with more dedicated disciples.

Yes, we need to get ready for a bumpy ride. But, the Church has always survived the bumps in the road.

Fr. Tirso Villaverde, Jr.

THE PASSAGE OF TIME

*“Make new friends, but keep the old...
The new are silver, the old are gold!”*

This year, St. Margaret Mary Parish will be welcoming back the graduates from the Class of 1969. We are so excited to be reconnecting with classmates from our years here at St. Margaret Mary School.

Memories of shared moments in childhood create a bond and become sweeter as time goes by. We will celebrate at the 4:00 pm Saturday Mass on June 29th, tour the parish grounds (some have never seen the Activity Center) and then on to our party.

Please keep our class and all graduates from SMM in your prayers!

CYCLES OF FAITH

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship.

"The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for his disciples, those who say they want to follow him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?
